

Botanical name

BANKSIA INTEGRIFOLIA

COAST BANKSIA, WHITE HONEY SUCKLE

Common name

ABOUT

MATURE HEIGHT

6 - 15 metres

MATURE SPREAD

6 - 8 metres

FLOWER COLOUR

Cylindrical spikes that start out white turning yellow are produced in autumn into winter and spot flower rest of year.

DESCRIPTION

Evergreen native tree that can display an open habit with grey blue foliage with silver-white undersides to the leaves. Bird attracting due to nectar rich flowers.

ENVIRONMENTAL REQUIREMENTS

Prefers well drained soils in full sun, will benefit from regular watering during extended hot dry periods.

Figure 1: Full size tree

Figure 2: Flower