MAYOR'S COLUMN

Cr Col Mitchell

Col Mitchell

On 21 November I officially "switched on" the new lights at Tahmoor Sportsground - Field 3. Wollondilly Little Athletics use the ground in Spring/Summer. The new floodlights consist of six towers and illuminate the oval to over 100 lux. The lighting levels and lighting spill is in accordance with Australian Standards for Sports Lighting. The cost of the lighting was $158,500 and funded in its entirety from Council's last Special rate variation. I am a passionate advocate for sporting facilities, especially if children use the grounds.

On Sunday 14 December, we will be holding an open day at the Community Nursery and Animal Shelter as well as a Christmas celebration. The location is 2 Wonga Road, Picton behind Picton High School and begins at 10am and concludes at 2pm. The activities will include: Free microchipping, Nursery and Animal Shelter tours, "Ask the Trainer", Australian Wildlife Display, Animal Petting Farm, Bargo Dingo Sanctuary, Wollondilly Wires, Face Painting, Plant sales and giveaways, Sausage sizzle, Special guest - King and Queen of Green will be making a royal appearance, Fairy Wren Food Co-op, TUC Garden Stall with locally grown produce, Workshops in propagation and home gardening.

Other events coming up include:

- Industry breakfast to celebrate International Day of People with Disability - 3 December. Contact 4677 1150 for information.
- Advanced Manufacturing Forum - BEC and NSW Trade and Investment - 5 December held at Campbelltown Catholic Club. Register on www.swsydneybec.com.au/events

Roads works for this week:

- Construction of new car park in Walton St Picton is commencing
- The Reseals Program is continuing in the Bargo area
- Drainage works are carried out in Silverdale and Warragamba
- Woodbridge Rd is now open to traffic and will be swept this week

I regret to advise that Alex Apps of Razorback passed away suddenly on 19 November. Alex collapsed at home on Wednesday night 19 November and did not respond to attempts to revive him.

Alex was born in Picton to Ben and Daphne Apps of 4th generation dairy farmers of Razorback. The Apps family have a long history of involvement with the Picton District AH&I Soc. Inc. He was joint secretary with his father, Ben for 12 years and more recently the President for the last 5 years. After school Alex gained an apprenticeship as an electrician with Nepean County Council. He then went on to be a contractor for the RTA owning his own back hoe and truck. Alex worked for 10 years at the golf club before retiring.

Alex married Grace Moore and they had three daughters together - Amanda, Felicity - both deceased and Deanne. Alex married his second wife Gail Emmett in 1992. He was passionate about Australian Country Music and led an active outdoor life enjoying fishing, caring for his animals and photography.

Cr Benn Banasik

Benn

I hope that everyone enjoyed the long weekend and had an opportunity to attend an ANZAC Day celebration.

On 23 April, I attended Taara Gardens, Thirlmere to participate in their ANZAC Service. It was a wonderful tribute to the ANZAC's with the inclusion of photos of servicemen who have recently been killed in conflict. There was an image of each of those 40 soldiers with volunteers laying a rose in the garden next to their photos. It was a touching reminder about the sacrifices made by so many service men and women.

On 25 April, I attended the ANZAC Ceremony in Picton for the Dawn Service. Also in attendance were Deputy Mayor, Cr Lou Amato, Cr Col Mitchell, Cr Judith Hannan, Cr Michael Banasik and Cr Ray Law. It is great to see so many people participate in the ANZAC Services, each year these events grow in popularity, which is wonderful to see.

I also attended the Warragamba ANZAC Service along with Cr Simon Landow, Cr Judith Hannan. There were other ANZAC services that were attended by our Councillors and I would like to thank them for participating on my behalf. These include: Bargo ceremony was attended by Deputy Mayor, Cr Lou Amato and Cr Hilton Gibbs; Oakdale ceremony was attended by Cr Judith Hannan and Cr Hilton Gibbs and Thirlmere was attended by Cr Michael Banasik and Cr Ray Law, Queen Victoria attended - Cr Col Mitchell.

I would like to publically congratulate the new Premier the Hon. Mike Baird MP and my close friend the Hon. Jai Rowell MP on being promoted to the NSW Ministry, with his portfolio being Minister for Mental Health Services and Assistant Minister for Health Services. I know that Jai will continue to do great things for Wollondilly and his new position shows how highly respected he is by his peers. Well done Jai!

Council is hosting the Wollondilly Jobs Forum that will be held on Friday, 9 May 2014 at the Picton Bowling Club, and will provide an opportunity for our business leaders, members of Council's Economic Development Advisory Group and interested stakeholders to discuss ideas and offer views on how to retain and stimulate the economic development and jobs growth in the Wollondilly Shire. In order to be a comprehensive platform for ideas and strategies, the forum will focus on a range of issues influencing the economic importance of the strategic direction that will enable jobs growth across the Shire. Bookings are essential if you would like to sponsor or attend the forum. Call 4677 1179 for further details.

Angus Taylor, Federal Member for Hume will be in Wollondilly, if you would like to see him and discuss important Federal issues.

On Thursday 8 May he will be at:

- Picton at 9am to 11:30am (at La Crema Café 147 Argyle St), The Oaks at 1pm to 2:30pm (near The Oaks Hotel),
- Oakdale at 3:30pm to 5pm (in the car park near Oakdale School)
- Bargo at 6pm to 7:30pm (at the Bargo Pub).

On Friday 9 May he will be at:

- Tahmoor at 10am to 12pm (at the park on the cnr Progress St & Remembrance Drive),
- Buxton at 1pm to 2:30pm (at the bus stop opposite the shops)
- Wilton at 4pm to 5:30pm, (at the Wilton Shops).

For further details you can call his Electorate Office on 02 4822 2277.

Until next week, take care and stay safe.
